

"Modern statesmanship demands that every practical effort shall be made through organized health boards and expert officers to protect the health of the people."—Cameron Morrison.

SUGGESTED RELATED ACTIVITIES

I. School Lunch: Simple dish to substitute lunch brought from home; The school cafeteria lunch.

II. Nutritional Problems: To be worked out in connection with the school lunch; To be based upon needs of particular group, i. e., underweights; To be worked out with coöperation of mothers.

III. Secure coöperation (financial and personal) from P. T. A. and other civic organizations to bring every child up to the health standard.

IV. Assist local health authorities by suggestions and services from both teacher and pupil.

V. Clubs: Health club; Safety club.

VI. Campaigns: Sanitary campaign—Rating system for lighting, ventilation, cleanliness, etc.; Personal health campaign; Community clean-up campaign; Safety campaign; Playground campaign—equipment, use and care.

VII. Studies of contributions made by scientists, physicians and others: Louis Pasteur—germ theory of disease; Edward Jenner—smallpox; Walter Reed—yellow fever; Edward Trudeau—tuberculosis; Doctor and Dorothea Dix; Florence Nightingale—Red Cross.

MATERIALS

I. Organizations furnishing material on Health Education: American Child Health Association, 370 Seventh Avenue, N. Y. City (A list of publications, some posters on Child Health, a few references on Child Health); National Dairy Council, 307 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Health Education Material (a booklet giving helpful suggestions for selection of posters, booklets, leaflets, folders, plays, stories, lantern slides, projects, films, exhibits and books); American Poster League, 1 Madison Avenue, N. Y. City (posters, slides and leaflets); Playground and Recreation Association of America, 315 Fourth Avenue, N. Y. City (list of one-act plays); Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, N. Y. City (posters, rhymes, charts and booklets—free); John Hancock Life Insurance Company, Boston, Mass.; Y. W. C. A. Woman's Press, 600 Lexington Avenue, N. Y. City (plays, posters and books); The Cleanliness Institute, School Department, 45 East 17th Street, N. Y. City; National Safety Council, Educational Division, 1 Park Avenue, N. Y. City; National Child Welfare Association, N. Y. City; Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co., Chicago,